French language students looking for a different French language course experience will appreciate the delightful town of Sainte-Anne and its relaxed way of life.

Sainte-Anne is a friendly town, with a good range of restaurants and cafes to explore. It is home to around 20,000 people and is located just 25 minutes east, along the coast from Pointe-a-Pitre. Sainte-Anne is renowned for its magnificent beaches with pure white sands.

Established in 1994, the French language school is located in a building, literally one minutes walk from the beach, and with banks, post office, restaurants and shops all around it. The language college has 6 classrooms with air conditioning, and provides a welcoming, intimate and relaxed study environment. Students can even try their hand at surfing or kite surfing in addition to a French course.

Students have access to a small library, the internet and email (for a small charge). At its busiest during the warmer months of the year (European winter time), students are advised to book early for the November to end of February period (the school is always at its busiest when Europe is cold and grey!).

St Anne

Angela : French & Surfing

"I wanted a holiday surfing and to improve my French at the same time... boy was that what I got. The school in St Anne was fantastic, my French improved so much. I loved the surfing in the afternoons. Fantastic French lessons, gorgeous beaches, great weather and fun surfing... Heaven! I really didn't want to come home."

Anne: Private Tuition

I was very pleased with my experience in Guadeloupe. My French instructor was excellent; she was extremely knowledgeable and well-prepared, and created a comfortable and fun classroom environment that was conducive to learning. She also tailored specific assignments to meet my learning needs and goals, such as loaning me a short novel by a Haitian writer to read on my own time. After just three weeks of classes at the school, I had advanced significantly (testing at B2, leaving with a level of "utilisateur independant avance").

James: Private Tuition

"I really didn't know what to expect from my time in Sainte Anne. I had some unexpected free time and needed some sun - but wanted to work on my French. Paris in January didn't appeal. CESA suggested Guadeloupe and could arrange it quickly - so I went. Small classes, hot tropical weather and a couple of glasses of rum each evening really helped improve my French!"
