

Cologne 2020

With many years of teaching experience, the Cologne college, caters for ALL linguistic needs, can prepare students for the "Zertifikat Deutsch" exams and provides an excellent study environment. The college is particularly good for Languages for Life and Private Tuition students and has proved very popular with past CESA students (catering for 60/120 students in any one month).

This modern German Language school is situated in the centre of Cologne. A short walk will take you to the Rhine, the cathedral and the historical old part of town with numerous monuments from the Roman and medieval ages. The centre has 17 well equipped classrooms, a large media library with numerous computers and educational programs, a library, a DVD library and comprehensive study material. Students can also use the self-study centre to aid them in their learning.

Cologne has a vibrant university community and is home to over 70,000 students. It offers a wide range of entertainment, from top nightclubs and music and cinematic festivals, through to classical concerts and prestigious art collections. In addition, it hosts the Cologne Carnival, which attracts more than one million visitors every year. The city really is a great study venue, year-round.

Cologne 2020

CESA
Languages Abroad

Jan: Standard Course

"I'd go back to Cologne in a heart beat! It's the greatest city in the world, the memories made and the experience I had are incredible. If you want to really immerse yourself in Germany and truly master the German language, just go. I honestly feel that my language course in Cologne has changed my life."

Steven: Languages for Life

"The college staff were tremendous, so supportive and always willing to help. As a beginner, with no prior language skills I needed a lot of help in the first few weeks. Small classes and personal attention ensured quick results, and whilst I wouldn't say I'm fluent yet, I can now understand and actively participate in general conversations, follow German TV and understand most info in newspapers articles!"

Mrs James: Combined Group Course (20 + 5)

"Our teachers expected us to work hard – that was fine with me, that was what I was paying for. Even so, I can't believe I covered so much ground in just 2 weeks and on top of that was able to visit the fantastic museums and attend the theatre. Thanks to everyone at CESA who helped make this possible. It was a memorable and totally rewarding trip."
