Zara: Combined Course

"I loved how the lessons were all in Italian, as it really immersed us into the language. By the end of the course I had made some really amazing friends whilst in Florence. The apartment I stayed in was really well located and relatively inexpensive considering its distance to the centre. The nightlife in Florence was also amazing."

Lucy: Languages for Life

"The lessons moved faster than I expected, but I liked that, as I wanted to learn as much as possible. I didn't expect the school to provide so much beyond the actual lessons - the scope of trips, courses and social events were really impressive. I liked the combination of very technical grammar work and free conversation lessons: it enabled you to sort out the nuts and bolts and then put what you'd learnt into practice!"
