Rosie: Standard Course

"I felt very safe whilst exploring the entertainment in the city and the locals were very friendly and always willing to stop and speak. Siena is fairly small, so it wasn't very daunting for a younger student. I really enjoyed going out for a couple of drinks with my friends, there are some delightful bars with a really good atmosphere. My host family were very welcoming and accommodating. They served me some wonderful food and the apartment was very comfortable."

Adrian: Standard Course

"I wanted intensive tuition programme in both grammar and conversation and to have two glorious weeks in Siena. The lessons were excellent; and our teacher managed to stick to the programme whilst also adjusting to our individual needs. We had excellent work books, which I will continue to use on my own. I can honestly say there are no complaints. CESA Languages staff were excellent and I would definitely recommend others to go on a CESA language course abroad!"
