

Antibes 2025

With 35 years+ of experience the Antibes college offers a great study location to suit ALL linguistic needs (across 6 language levels on general language courses).

The main college site is set in a Provencal farmhouse in its own garden with 22 modern classrooms, a cafeteria with sun patio, and an internet room (with Wi-Fi). A second smaller site is located down by the port and is used during the busier months.

Antibes is extremely animated, has one of the finest markets on the coast and the best Picasso collection in its ancient seafront castle; and the southern end still has its woods of pine, in which the most exclusive mansions hide. There are some beautiful beaches locally, one of the best is "Juan les Pins beach". The language college in Antibes appeals to CESA students on a year-round basis, but particularly so in the hot summer months.

Early bookings for July and August are highly recommended.

The wide range of French language courses on offer include general language courses & DELF exam preparation and the college is always busy. The college suits adults looking to put their French skills into practise for career or social reasons, students (18yrs+) revising prior to exams and adult learners requiring a Languages for Life course for long term study.

Mrs Wardley: Standard Course

“Antibes is excellent – large enough to offer all aspects of shops, culture etc, but not too large. The school is within walking distance of the centre of town and the main beach. It has an excellent bus service, so no aspect is really out of reach for students. The young students made their own social life in the residences. I enjoyed a few good places to eat. There is plenty to do – if you have the time, the teachers give you homework! As I am retired I asked for a hostess of a similar age to myself. Madame Monique Cartier was excellent. We went out together, shopped together and she even helped me when I got stuck with my homework.”

Niamh: Standard Course

“I’ve always loved Antibes. That’s why I chose it when I wanted to improve my French. Spending 8 weeks working on my French with such great people has really helped my French ability and my self-confidence in using the language. I loved the college and had a great social life too!”

CESA Plus Points:

Antibes:

On one side of the Cap d'Antibes peninsula is quiet, relaxed Antibes; famous for its old city, on the other, Juan les Pins, a much more modern resort, famed for its nightlife, beaches, jazz festival and flashy lifestyle ~ Antibes boasts the largest marina in Europe, Port Vauban ~ check out the cathedral and the old ramparts, the Picasso Museum (Chateau Grimaldi) & the Peynet Museum (Bastion Saint André) ~ just strolling through the streets of upmarket Cap d'Antibes is a great way to spend an afternoon.

Antibes College:

Suits adults (mainly in their 20's and up) ~ Ideal for students year-round, but at its most popular in the May/September period ~ good course options and great location in south of France ~ wide range of residential accommodation offered ~ a sociable college, but gets really busy in the summer, so please book early!
