

Barcelona 2020

Barcelona has great appeal to language students, of all ages and has been a popular CESA student destination for many years. At night the city exhibits a unique zest for nightlife and entertainment, from alternative night clubs to traditional flamenco clubs, restaurants galore, cafes and tapas bars. With 4 km of beach, a mild winter climate (temperatures vary from 5/12°C) and long summers (18/29°C) Barcelona offers the perfect setting for language students of all ages who wish to explore the delights of Cataluña's best known city, whilst improving their language skills.

Established in 1972 the college is based in a well-appointed town house, with its own roof terrace, only a few minutes' walk from the Plaza Cataluña and Las Ramblas. There are 40 classrooms (with air-con), a social area, video & computer room, free Wi-Fi & internet access, a library & a study centre, a bar & terrace.

There are a great range of Spanish language courses on offer. The college has proved very popular with Gap Year and graduate students requiring longer term courses, there are also excellent preparation options for the Spanish DELE exams. Whilst students following short courses for career, academic or personal reasons are also catered for with a great range of course options.

Howard : Languages for Life

“The school was ideally situated, very central and near to the metro station. The school building was large, clean and pleasant. The roof terrace café was excellent, a friendly and sociable place.

The nightlife is excellent; there were many beautiful, stylish and elegant bars and clubs. The city is packed with very interesting attractions to suit everyone and I was still rushing around in my last week to try and fit it all in.”

Vicky: Standard Course

“What an experience. If I was to do it all over again, I'd keep a vocabulary notebook and jot down all the words I learnt, adding to it every day, and review every week what we'd done in class. However in reality, there is so much to see and do in the city and so many great students to get to know – studying in Barcelona is just phenomenal!”
