Barcelona has great appeal to language students, of all ages and has been a popular CESA student destination for many years. At night the city exhibits a unique zest for nightlife and entertainment, from alternative night clubs to traditional flamenco clubs, restaurants galore, cafes and tapas bars. With 4 km of beach, a mild winter climate (temperatures vary from 5/12°C) and long summers (18/29°C) Barcelona offers the perfect setting for language students of all ages who wish to explore the delights of Cataluña's best-known city, whilst improving their language skills.

The school is in the neighbourhood of Eixample, just one block from the nearest subway stop and one block from the famous La Pedrera building. The area is full of incredible restaurants and within walking distance of Sagrada Familia and a short ride to the beach. It is housed on the second floor of a modern building that was completely remodelled in 2017.

Offering small group classes, in a small school environment (09 classrooms, a common room, free wifi and wheelchair access), catering for all levels and a wide range of ages. Students can prepare for the Spanish DELE/SIELE exams.

CESA
Languages Abroad

Howard : Languages for Life

"The nightlife is excellent; there were many beautiful, stylish and elegant bars and clubs. The city is packed with very interesting attractions to suit everyone and I was still rushing around in my last week to try and fit it all in."

Vicky: Standard Course

"What an experience. If I was to do it all over again, I'd keep a vocabulary notebook and jot down all the words I learnt, adding to it every day, and review every week what we'd done in class. However in reality, there is so much to see and do in the city and so many great students to get to know – studying in Barcelona is just phenomenal!"
