

San Sebastian 2026

With between 95/220 students studying each month the San Sebastian college offers a fabulous city/beach study environment for ALL linguistic needs from beginner through to the advanced learner (across 8 language levels on general language courses).

San Sebastian (or Donostia as it is known in the Basque culture) curves around La Concha beach. It is sheltered by Monte Urgull, Ulia and Igeldo. The city is near the border and the French influence can be seen in the ornate buildings & streets. A haven for water sports fans such as water-skiing & diving and where surfing is a way of life.

The college is located close to a large park and just 10 minutes away from the beach. It houses 18 classrooms all with air con, an open-air terrace with snacks, coffee and drink machines, a large reception area & free Wi-Fi access, a social area & library, HIFI sound system in every classroom and in all common areas, videos, overhead projectors. A second college site, near the Cathedral, with a further 7 classrooms, is used during the busy summer months. The terrace at the back of the college is where students can relax and make friends during their breaks. Overall the college, with its modern decoration offers a friendly and studious atmosphere.

Emily: Languages for Life

"Classes are a lot of fun. A lot of studying to do though. But mainly, I am enjoying myself! In my free time, apart from studying, I've been on a hike with friends and simply just experiencing the Spanish-Basque culture. But it's the beach where I've been spending most of my time. After school everyday, we all head straight to the beach. Some surf and others play volleyball. Jo and I are heading to Barcelona this weekend and then after that I have one more week left!! I am very sad. I don't want to leave. Especially now that summer has hit."

Colin: Standard Course

"Best plan I've put in action for a long time. I was, as CESA stated, well taught and thoroughly trained in all aspects of the Spanish language by the language school in San Sebastian, so well that after four weeks of intensive study I'd moved up a level and was in control of a growing vocabulary (and this was despite a fairly decent intake of alcohol and the odd surfing afternoon or so, each week). Seriously though thanks to CESA for inspiring me and the school staff for making me stick to it. Consistency of study and plenty of practise ensured real results. After 8 weeks I can't believe the progress I made!."
