Catering for ALL linguistic needs from beginner through to the advanced learner, this is the sister school to the college in Lima. Cusco, with an elevation of 3,416 meters (11,207 Feet), is located in the heart of the Andean Peruvian Land. White-washed alleys and terracotta-tiled roofs are home to a rich mix of history, lively nightlife and a vast array of museums, sights and scenery. As capital of the Inca Empire it has plenty to offer the visitor. The Plaza de Armas is at the city centre, there you will find La Catedral and the San Francisco Church. You can also visit the Temple of the Sun Coricancha and the White Christ, a statue of Jesus standing above the city. The main local attraction is, of course, Machu Picchu.

The college is centrally located 10 minutes by bus from the historic centre, within easy reach of the monuments, restaurants, bars, shops & markets. A small college catering for 20/50 students, including 9 classrooms, a common room and 2 computers (free internet & WIFI for students). Activities include a city tour, cookery classes, excursions to a llama farm, Lake Titicaca and the rain forest (one excursion offered most Saturdays).

The college suits all language learners, and the small class size encourages rapid language acquisition. The Cusco college offers personal attention and the opportunity to explore the wonders of Peru's fabulous Inca/Spanish heritage.

Ingrid: Standard Course

“I stayed all through February and I truly had an amazing experience. I took all my classes in Cusco and I loved every minute. I decided to stay with a host family to force myself to speak as much Spanish as possible, and the family I stayed with opened their arms and hearts to me immediately. I still keep in touch with them, and I’ve gone back to visit them later. Every day I learnt something useful, and the classes were organized so that you would practice grammar and then talk as freely as possible. This allowed us to have some very interesting discussions, especially since we were all from different countries and experiences.”

Andrea: Standard Course

“Peru was very exciting. Besides good food, Peru offers beautiful scenery and an interesting culture. The Inca temple and other works in Cusco and its surroundings, like Machu Picchu or the Sacred Valley, are impressive. I recommend everyone travels to Peru.”

CUSCO

2025

CESA Plus Points:

Cusco:

Spanish colonial architecture stands astride monolithic ruined Inca palaces ~ the “must do” is the Inca Trail to Macchu Pichu, ~ Plaza de Armas, is at the heart of the city, with the majority of sights within walking distance (the Inca Sun Temple, the Plaza San Francisco, the central market and the Iglesia de Santa Clara to name a few) ~ try and visit the Museo de Arte Precolombino, the stunning Inca-walled street of Calle Triunfo & the artisan quarter of San Blas ~ discover the Inca fortress of Sacsayhuaman ~ Cusco is a lively city for nightlife, with bars & restaurants galore ~ the friendly nature of the people (despite the Inca trail tourists) is a real plus point for students!

Cusco College:

Wonderful central location in the heart of Cusco ~ small group courses ~ excellent hosts ~ fabulous trips and excursions.
