

Cuenca 2019

With over 15 years of teaching experience, and between 25 /40 students studying each month the college offers a relaxed but serious study environment, catering for all language levels. Located in an Andean valley, Cuenca is a town of striking contrast. It has successfully preserved its colonial past from its cobbled streets, churches, pre-Hispanic ruins, museums, and colourful Indian markets. Colonial Cuenca is just across the Tomebamba River from modern day Cuenca with modern office buildings, art galleries and two universities. Home to many scholars and artists of Ecuador, Cuenca is said to be the "Athens of Ecuador." Relatively undiscovered by English speaking tourists, this programme offers an excellent opportunity to learn Spanish.

The school is in a quiet residential district, with several commercial areas nearby, with shops and restaurants for students to explore. It is in a converted house, surrounded by gardens and has seven classrooms and a very nice cafeteria, where students can connect their laptops for free WiFi service. The garden is a great place for students to relax and study and sometimes becomes a venue for classes, barbecues and small parties. The college primarily attracts students (18yrs+) and adults looking to improve their Spanish, be it for career, academic or personal reasons.

Lucy: Standard Course

"I loved the school. I was impressed by the organisation, the standard of the teachers and the extra curricula activities i.e. cooking classes, regional and Latin American dance classes and full day excursions to craft villages such as Gualaceo and Chordeleg, the Cajas Natural park and a trip up in to mountainous jungle. Lessons were intensive and concentrated on grammar, oral work and consolidating lessons which tested what we covered that day – we also had homework every night, which was a novelty for a Uni graduate! At the end of the course I had improved way beyond lapsed A-level ability of school days."

Jack: Standard Course

"I definitely improved my all round Spanish language and grammar but I also felt the course set me up perfectly for travelling around South America for the 4 months afterwards.

The lessons and particularly the teaching were excellent, I was particularly happy with the rotation of teachers, not due to poor teaching but because it kept things fresh and interesting. The lessons in general were varied and interesting and totally different to anything I had done before. The school was in an absolutely ideal location in Cuenca, near to everything and 15 minutes walk from my host family. I felt entirely comfortable with all the staff both in and out of lessons."

CESA Plus Points:

Ecuador:

It is worth taking some time to explore Ecuador. Almost all students spend several days or weeks travelling through the Ecuadorian sierras, jungles and beaches after their course. The Ecuadorians are friendly and hospitable, and a network of buses connects the country, taking adventurous travellers to exotic and fascinating places.

For a few dollars you can find a room in a simple and clean hotel or hostel. Galapagos is a dream come true for any nature lover. Excursions to the Galapagos are expensive and prices, including air fare, and accommodation start at 800 US$ (4 days/3 nights).

Cuenca:

Cuenca and its surrounding region are rich in history, with a colonial atmosphere that has survived thanks to years of almost complete isolation. Cuenca is a city of fascinating contrasts: two universities, museums and art galleries stand alongside Indian markets rarely visited by foreigners.

College:

Ideal for all abilities and ages, from 18yrs+ to adults looking for a great course in a wonderful location, overlooking the Barranco River ~ centrally located with good facilities and excellent teachers ~ Additional programmes are a real draw, particularly the Arts and Volunteering options.
