

Lima 2019

Catering for ALL linguistic needs from beginner through to the advanced learner, the school, is located in the prestigious Miraflores neighbourhood, just a few blocks from the Pacific shores with perfect temperatures year round.

Lima, known as 'the city of kings' is the capital city of Peru. Home to 8 million inhabitants, it is located on the coast in the valleys of the Chillón, Rímac and Lurín rivers and looks out over the magnificent Pacific Ocean. In Lima you can enjoy beautiful beaches, landscaped parks, the central market, and the Chinese neighbourhood, all of which are "must sees" for any traveller. The city is rich in culture, we recommend you visit the museums dedicated to Peruvian history and the richness of the Inca Empire.

College facilities include: 8 classrooms, a computer room with free internet access & patio areas to relax outside of classes. There are also plenty of Internet cafes in Lima which offer internet access. The college suits all language learners, and the small class size encourages rapid language acquisition.

The Lima college offers personal attention and the opportunity to explore the wonders of Peru's fabulous heritage, on short or longer term courses with the option to learn to surf or volunteer in the community (usually, you work directly with local people and are responsible for the care of ill and homeless children, the handicapped or the elderly).

Michael: Standard Course

"I definitely recommend spending time in Lima. As a general matter, Peruvians speak good Spanish, so it's a good place to learn. In addition, the school in Miraflores is very good. The teachers and staff are not only good at their jobs, they are also genuinely nice (and fun) people – I consider my teacher, the director and the activities director friends now (and I think everyone in the school had a similar experience). I spent time at the sister colleges in Santiago, Buenos Aires, and I am very glad I did the Lima portion. Obviously, each place is different culturally. In many ways Lima is the most different culturally from home, so that made it even more interesting and rewarding!"

Amy: Spanish & Surf

"I loved my time in Lima. Spanish lessons were great, our teacher made the lessons interesting and fun which made studying Spanish more enjoyable. I especially enjoyed my surf lessons in the afternoon, its the perfect way to unwind after vocab lessons."

CESA Plus Points:

Lima:

You can also contemplate the architecture, enjoy the pounding surf of the Pacific waves, savour Peruvian cooking and get to know the local people. In the last century, many of its richest families built summer houses in the seaside suburbs of Miraflores & Barranco, then well outside the city centre. Miraflores is a perfect base from which to visit the rest of Lima. Parque Kennedy, a pretty tree-lined park, surrounded by pavement cafes, offers a sanctuary from the noise and pollution of the city centre ~ Miraflores has a large multiplex cinema, a number of excellent shops selling local arts and crafts.

Lima College:

Wonderful central location in Miraflores just a few blocks for the beach ~ small group courses ~ special Spanish & Surfing or Volunteer programmes ~ High quality tuition in a small school ~ Excellent hosts.
