

French A' level Revision

Paris (15th) 2023

Programme details

Only French will be spoken in class

Language students follow a one-week intensive immersion course in this amazing city. The course is appropriate for teenagers who are independent and mature enough not to require constant direction from group leaders.

All teachers are fully qualified and experienced in teaching French as a foreign Language.

The course is academically demanding, and the French language school staff are aware that the students want to make the most of their time in Paris and will do all they can to assist students to ensure they enjoy their French experience, both in and outside the classroom.

The main objective is to improve linguistic abilities, whilst concentrating on the skills essential to the A' level (or European equivalent) exam.

Course objectives and methodology

- to prepare for the A-LEVEL French examination
- to train for specific examinations (listening activities, presenting a theme, writing a letter, narrative ~ or summary, etc.)
- to practice general French linguistic skills (written expression, "essay planning", oral / written comprehension, oral / interactive communication)
- to revise French language grammar and build vocabulary communicative methods, role play and use of real documents

Open to : 16/19 yr old students

Is this course for you?

Yes. If you're looking for a demanding French A' level revision course in Paris, living with French hosts (or can arrange your own accommodation in Paris).
