

French A' level Revision

Paris (15th) 2025

Programme details

Only French will be spoken in class

Language students follow a one-week intensive immersion course in this amazing city. The course is appropriate for teenagers who are independent and mature enough not to require constant direction from group leaders.

All teachers are fully qualified and experienced in teaching French as a foreign Language.

The course is academically demanding, and the French language school staff are aware that the students want to make the most of their time in Paris and will do all they can to assist students to ensure they enjoy their French experience, both in and outside the classroom.

The main objective is to improve linguistic abilities, whilst also concentrating on the skills essential to the A' level exam.

Course objectives and methodology

- to prepare for the A-LEVEL French examination - training for specific exam skills in the Tuesday and Thursday afternoon sessions

- to practice general French linguistic skills (written expression, "essay planning", oral / written comprehension, oral / interactive communication) and revising French language grammar and building vocabulary communicative methods, role play and use of real documents in the morning group classes. These classes are open to all students attending the school and class groups are determined by level test.

Open to : 16 yrs+ students

Is this course for you?
