

Japanese Long Term Courses 2025/26

www.cesalanguages.com

e.info@cesalanguages.com

For most people learning the Japanese language is challenging and rewarding, but it will take a considerable amount of time and personal motivation.

By committing to a long-term programme in Japan you can be sure of high quality, structured tuition with professional native tutors who will enable you to become proficient in the language (allowing for the time you can commit to a course). For many students who wish to study long term in Japan the main barrier to success will be the visa regulations. There are a variety of course/visa options to suit most people.

Student Visa (Fukuoka & Nagoya) Working Visa (All schools) Tourist entry/Visa-waiver (All schools)

In this PDF factsheet, we explain in detail who is eligible for which visa, and what requirements/restrictions Japanese Immigration have in place, for each option.

Minimum age: 18 (mainly 19/30yrs) Minutes per lesson: 50

CESA Plus Points:

Fukuoka

Must sees include the modern Kyuhsu National Museum (Japanese artefacts) ~ the Asian Art Museum ~ Hakata-za, Fukuoka's famous "kabuki" theatre ~ free Noh and Kabuki performances in the Ohori Park Noh theatre ~ for night birds enjoy the huge variety of venues, for everything from a cup of 'sake' with friends in a quiet 'izakaya' to a crazy night of dancing at a top club ~ Izakayas (Japanese pubs) exist on virtually every corner ~ try a 'shochu' (a spirit made from either rice, wheat, barley or potato) or some 'sashimi' (raw fish) and you could easily be mistaken for a local.

CESA Plus Points:

Nakoya

Nagoya is the 3rd largest city in Japan, at the heart of Aichi prefecture. Home to Oda Nobunaga, Toyotomi Hideyoshi and Tokugawa leyasu. The city is the manufacturing and shipping hub of central Honshu island. It is not a classic tourist destination though the Toyota Tecno Museum is located here and the medieval Castle is a huge draw. There is much to discover in the metropolitan centre and the surrounding smaller towns, so provides a wonderful place for Japanese language course immersion.

CESA Plus Points:

Tokvo:

Don't get too hung up on ticking tourist sights off your list: for most visitors, the biggest part of the Tokyo experience is just wandering around at random and absorbing the vibe, poking your head into shops selling weird and wonderful things, sampling restaurants where you can't recognize a single thing on the menu (or on your plate), and finding an unexpected oasis of calm in the tranquil grounds of a neighbourhood Shinto shrine. It's all surprisingly safe, and the locals will go to extraordinary lengths to help you if you just ask. Shinjuku: Home to luxury hotels, giant camera stores, futuristic skyscrapers, hundreds of shops and restaurants.

CESA Plus Points:

Kvoto

Kyoto is known as the thousand-year capital, the historic seat of the Imperial Emperors until 1869. It is home to 1.5 million+ people. The city is home to a busy business centre, many revered Universities, and a very modern major train station. The ancient and the modern sit side by side here, historic temples, shrines and palaces, modern skyscrapers multi landed highways and quiet backstreets with, old world wooden houses.

There is a large university student population (over 20 universities in the city) and it's a very popular tourist destination. It offers history, fine cuisine and a lively Arts scene.

Public holidays in Japan 2025

On public holidays, lessons are not held (and are replaced by the school by an activity or excursion) and if this coincides with a start date, the assessment tests and registration \underline{may} take place on Tuesday instead.

2025: 01 & 13 Jan, 11 & 24 Feb, 20 Mar, 29 Apr, 05 & 06 May, 21 Jul, 11 Aug, 15 & 23 Sept, 13 Oct, 03 & 24 Nov 2026: to be confirmed. Christmas closure: Week of 29th December 2025.

Visa Waiver / Tourist Entry

The Visa Waiver arrangement works very well for UK, USA and EU citizens (amongst others). Students must respect the period allowed for their nationality, but it means you can travel and study without needing to complete any visa paperwork.

Generally students can stay in Japan on this basis for a 02 to 180 days period. No exceptions can be made to the rules laid down by Japanese Immigration.

Full details of visa waiver rules can be found online: http://www.mofa.go.jp/j info/visit/visa/short/novisa.html

No application deadline applied

Available for shorter term courses only – maximum 180 days (depending on your nationality)

On arrival in Japan you will be given a 90-day landing permission. If you plan on spending longer than 90 days in Japan you will need to leave the country (most students take the short flight to South Korea) spend a night and then return to Japan to renew your 90 days stay permission.

JLPT Exam Preparation

So you can speak Japanese. Can you prove it?

The recognised proof of Japanese linguistic ability is the JLPT Exams, accredited by the Ministry of Students can sit the exam in December.

It is a perfect supplement to a long-term programme.

Extra private tuition: Available on request Exam application fee: Approx ¥7,000.00 (paid to the Exam board, not the language school

20 group Japanese lessons plus additional exam orientated private classes per week, plus homework.

Offered: Generally September/November (leading up to the JLPT exams in December)

Core classes: As Standard Japanese Course PLUS: Preparation for the JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Tests). Each week your teacher gives you homework, then analyses your weak points and discusses learning strategies with you.

Please note that you cannot choose which JLPT level you want to prepare for. Teachers at the school will assign a level for you according to your test results.
