

Lindau 2025

Lindau, with 26.000 inhabitants, is a picturesque, medieval town on an island in Lake Constance, Germany's biggest lake. The area is one of Germany's most magnificent regions of unsurpassed beauty. A lovely landscape with small lakes, vineyards, small forests and the panorama of the Austrian & Swiss Alps. The old part of the town on its own island, with its harbour, churches, towers & narrow lanes is truly idyllic.

Est, 1985 the Lindau college, caters for ALL linguistic needs, can prepare students for various exams including the "Zertifikat Deutsch" and provides a wonderful study environment. The college is particularly good for Languages for Life courses and the summer short term courses are also very popular with CESA students.

The school is right in the old town centre on the island of Lindau. It is located in the upper floor of the main station and directly on the harbour with a marvellous view of the lake and the Alps. The school has 6+ modern classrooms, a cafe with a terrace, a library & media library with computer access. Catering for 45 to 80 students in any one month the college has a personal, relaxed and friendly atmosphere that the students really appreciate.

With restaurants, pubs, discos, a theatre, galleries, museums and cinemas to explore by night as well as the beautiful squares and hidden lanes to discover by day. Snow & skiing in the winter months and sun and water sports in the summer, this beautiful place appeals to everyone!

Kay: Standard Course

“The lessons were very good and as my confidence with the language grew I began to forget that I was learning. The lessons were very interesting and varied. The school’s location was excellent; everything was nearby including the bus stop. The teachers were very friendly and approachable; I felt very comfortable and at home and the teachers made everyone feel very involved. The best parts of my course were meeting other students, enjoyable lessons, the social life and the wonderful family I stayed with.”

Mr Abra: Intensive Course

“The school is very good and all the staff were very approachable. My wife, who is an Assistant Director of a school in Cambridge that teaches English spent half a day at the school and had the same positive impression as I did. Lindau is definitely the right location for a language school. Everything about the course was good I can’t think of any bad parts.”

CESA Plus Points:

Lindau:

Must sees include the medieval buildings dating back to the 1400's, and romantic architecture from the 1700's (a perfect backdrop for language study at any time of the year) ~ In the summer you can enjoy water sports (of all descriptions) on the lake, or jazz, classical or modern music concerts and street theatre or simply an ice cream whilst promenading and soaking up some summer sun ~ In the winter, with the Austrian border just a few kms away and Switzerland a short ferry ride away, the ski or snow board enthusiast heads to the Alps at the weekend ~ Enjoy the wonderful restaurants, bars and cafes, spend your free time on the water, or simply unwind and soak up the Mediterranean-style atmosphere.

Lindau College:

High quality general language course options ~ focused on course quality and great for exam preparation ~ ideal for adults & students' year-round ~ busy in the sunny summer months ~ excellent value student residence accommodation.
