Learn French in Aix-en-Provence, a vibrant and lively university town with approximately 30,000 students which has a truly cultured feel and is home to a dynamic opera festival each July. Everyone loves to see and be seen drinking coffee with the local Aixois, in the outdoor terrace cafes on the Cours Mirabeau.

With over 40 years of teaching experience the college offers a great study location to suit ALL linguistic needs (across 6 language levels). The French language school in Aix-en-Provence, appeals to CESA students on a year round basis, and is ideal for short courses, year round.

The French school is located in a private mansion, in its own grounds to the east of the city centre, just 10/15 minutes' walk from the Cours Mirabeau and the historic centre of the city. The school has excellent learning facilities for their language student, including 14 classrooms, a multi-media centre, a reception area and a lounge with a library, next to a sunny private terrace.

Private Studios or Hotels:
Details provided on request

Host accommodation:

Stay with local French hosts in a single room, half-board, B&B or self catering basis. Hosts generally live in apartments around 12/25 minutes commute on foot or by bus to college each day. Please note that unless you book the self-catering option, students are not able to use their hosts kitchen for meal preparation. This is a great way to put your French into practise on a daily basis, particularly the half-board option, which gives you regular daily contact with French people.

Private Studios:

The school works with local apartment owners. They offer small studios for one or two people, near the school. Ideal for adults looking to live independently. This is a very popular and regular option used by past CESA students. Please book early, as studios will be booked quickly for all dates.

On request examples can be emailed to you for consideration.

Hotels:

The school works with various categories of Hotel in Aix-en-Provence. Please ask for details.

French course details:

Ideal for all ability levels looking for a course of 2 weeks duration. Ideal for adult learners who want to develop their general French language skills. The focus is on developing communication skills, oral skills most importantly (but written skills as well) to ensure that each student faces every type of communication with greater ease and confidence as the French programme progresses. The qualified teachers lead small international groups in a friendly and dynamic manner which encourages inter-cultural exchanges.

Course content: Revision and study of the structure of the language. Study of the 4 skills: oral and written comprehension and oral and written expression. Teaching based on everyday situations with the help of varied material. Systematically optimizing newly acquired linguistic skills. Discussions, debates and presentations to apply communication skills.

Students can join in the school's activity programme arranged for all students during the fortnight (booked once at the school), if not clashing with the walking itinerary.

CESA Plus Points

Aix:

Start in the Cours Mirabeau (a street lined with cafes, restaurants and elegant mansions, and shaded by several rows of centuries-old plane trees) sit at one of the terraces and watch life go by while sipping a coffee & listen to the water playing in nearby fountains ~ explore the Old Town to the north and the Quartier Mazarin to the south ~ must sees include the Musée Granet (great 17th c. painting collection), the Atelier Cézanne & the Foundation Vasarely. Nightlife is busy throughout the year, with bars a plenty and some great restaurants.

Aix Language School:

Ideal for adult students year-round, but most popular in the April/October period ~ good course options and great location ~ wide range of accommodation offered ~ a sociable college, but gets really busy in the summer, so book early!
