Michael: Standard Course

"I definitely recommend spending time in Lima. As a general matter, Peruvians speak good Spanish, so it's a good place to learn. In addition, the school in Miraflores is very good. The teachers and staff are not only good at their jobs, they are also genuinely nice (and fun) people – I consider my teacher, the director and the activities director friends now (and I think everyone in the school had a similar experience)."

Ann: Standard Course

"I am very pleased I chose the Lima school. Traveling alone as a mature single safety was a big concern. The arrangements were organized and well structured. All instructors are happy and eager to help. I will return!"

Abbi: Standard Course

"I went from knowing nothing to be able to have a basic conversation in a short space of time. The teachers and staff are all excellent at what they do. With the extra activities you also get a taste of Peruvian culture and get to see Lima. I made some really good friends there and had a fantastic time."

CESA Plus Points:

Lima:

You can also contemplate the architecture, enjoy the pounding surf of the Pacific waves, savour Peruvian cooking and get to know the local people. In the last century, many of its richest families built summer houses in the seaside suburbs of Miraflores & Barranco, then well outside the city centre. Miraflores is a perfect base from which to visit the rest of Lima. Parque Kennedy, a pretty tree-lined park, surrounded by pavement cafes, offers a sanctuary from the noise and pollution of the city centre ~ Miraflores has a large multiplex cinema, a number of excellent shops selling local arts and crafts.

Lima College:

A friendly school in a central location in Miraflores just 20 minutes from the beach ~ small group courses ~ a great range of extra-curricular activities ~ High quality tuition in a small school ~ Excellent range of hosts.
